Overview of Additional Comments

- Parking issue is a concern as parents park in unsafe areas. Suggested to have a traffic warden to issue tickets or allow parents to park inside for drop-off only.
- Parents evenings have been informative, and the school keeps parents up-to-date with events and activities.
- Some parents want more feedback on their child's progress and achievements at school as they cannot drop off or pick up their children regularly due to work commitments.
- Some parents would like more guidance on how to support their child's learning journey and to have a consistent way of teaching things.
- Some parents are concerned about the difference in facilities across the TAMAT group and suggested improvement to align with junior schools.
- Parents have expressed their satisfaction with the school's care for their children and their progress.
- Some parents are thrilled to see the principles from Covey's book being applied in the school.
- The headteacher is commended for his supportive and transformative leadership.
- Parents appreciated the school's communication and support during their children's transition to the school.

Overview of Parent Survey

Overall, the survey results suggest that the majority of parents are satisfied with their child's experience at the school and believe that the school is doing a good job in supporting their child's academic and personal development. A significant proportion of parents also feel that being part of TAMAT has a positive impact on their child's education. However, there are some areas where the school could improve, such as increasing the percentage of parents who feel informed about their child's progress and investing in leadership skills training.
